

Mortlake Sedimentary Land Unit

This land unit consists of near level sedimentary and alluvial plains. The largest occurrence of this unit occurs south-east of Mortlake. The soils are predominantly Black Vertosols.