

Tertiary Non-Marine Sandstone Land Unit

These fluvial sediments are pronounced gravels, sands and silts that have been consolidated over time. These Tertiary sediments can be found between Beaufort and Pittong in the north-east of the region. Gently undulating rises to low hills have Bleached-Sodic Brown Kurosols and associated minor Brown Chromosols.